DOWN THE ALLEYWAY...

In the fall of 2004, we happened upon a perfect cozy space at the end of an unused alley off the Bowery, and Freemans Restaurant was born.

The idea of the restaurant was to make a rugged clandestine colonial American Tavern.

The cuisine was also imagined to early American: Simple, Rustic, and inspired by Old World traditions.

COVID-19 UPDATE

Freemans is open and per NYC mandate requires proof of COVID-19 vaccination for all guests dining indoors.
